Multi Gaming table (1-3-2) Standard Anthracite-Concrete

Product code: PS.STAB.GT.132

Never be bored again at this multi-game table made of anthracite concrete. Our multi game table is a combination of several game tables: a ludo, checkers and chess table in one. All game boards are integrated into this beautiful, anthracite-coloured concrete picnic table. The benches and table are made together from one piece of concrete and the height of both the table and the seats are perfect for sitting, leaning and lounging about. Impervious to vandalism and resistant to all weather influences, this table assures you of years of gaming and seating pleasure. You will receive the set of pawns with dice, checkers and chess pieces for free.

Game table in different variants

The anthracite colour exudes class, in combination with the unique HeBlad appearance. A robust, weather-resistant table. This colour does not suit every environment or you may prefer a more natural, lighter version. The multi games table (1-3-2) standard is made of natural concrete. With exactly the same dimensions and specifications, you can also use both tables perfectly as a regular picnic set, in addition to playing games.

Multi games table, picnic set or ping pong table

In addition to the standard version of the multi-game table in natural or anthracite concrete, you can also opt for extra seating comfort. The multi-game table (1-3-2) DeLuxe from HeBlad is equipped with bamboo seating. This is slightly softer on the buttocks than the original concrete and still suitable for any and all weather conditions. All variants of the multi-game table are made from the base of a
