Blue table tennis table, rounded

Product code: PP.AR.BL

This ping pong table with rounded corners provides a lot of fun for many different people. This table is ideal for a playground where many children are playing. Rounding the corners of the table reduces the chance of a bruise from a corner. This concrete table tennis table is a nice and popular addition to our range of designs.

Table tennis from what age

The rounded corners of the table top provide more safety when playing around this table tennis table. That is why younger children from the age of 6 can also safely play a game at this table. Due to its shape, this version is perfect for the well-known game 'around the table', where participants have to walk around the table and pass the ball to one another. A challenging and speedy game. At Heblad, the safety of users comes first. In addition to its user-friendliness, the rounded corners also add to the appearance of the table, making it more elegant than the standard design.

How to install a table tennis table

Would you like to place the concrete table tennis table from HeBlad on grass? Then our concrete base plate is a good addition to ensure the stability of the table. If a concrete table tennis table is placed on grass without a base plate, mowing the grass around this table will often prove difficult. The bottom plate also prevents unwanted weeds from growing under the table. The biggest advantage, however, is that the concrete plate provides a maintenance-friendly, stable play area. The concrete base plate is available in combination with all our concrete
